Declaration of Buenos Aires: position statement on the provision of critical care nursing workforce

Declaration of Madrid: position statement on the preparation of critical care nurses (version 2)

The needs of Chinese family members of acute myocardial infarction patients during the critical phase of admission to coronary care

Intensive care nursing Himalayan style

Using the Roy adaptation model to guide the health assessment of patients in an intensive care setting in Hong Kong

Perspectives on critical care nursing: South Africa

The official journal of the World Federation of Critical Care Nurses published in association with the European federation of Critical Care Nursing associations